Judge Mullowny Speaks Out After Sentencing Harry Harding.

Harry Harding, alias H. F. Harden. was given a sentence of six months by Judge Mullowny in the Police Court Harding or Harden was convicted of a charge of passing an alleged worth-less check for $24 on Mrs. J. Dennis He denied the charge, but two other witnesses testified as to the cashing of he check for him by Mrs. Dennis.

Harding told Judge Mullowny that he was rooming at Mrs. Dennis' house on K street, and that his expenses on K street, and that his expenses were paid by Sergt. Catts, in charge of the vice squad. He said he had been sent there for the purpose of seeing if he could get evidence of any wrongdoing. Mrs. Dennis was recently convicted in the Folice Court on a charge of selling liquor without a license, and at that time Harding testified against her.

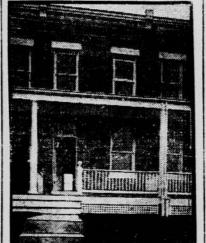

"I don't see how the police can expect to make cases when they employ such persons to secure evidence for such persons to secure evidence for them," said Judge Mullowny. "Here this man is sent to the house by the police to get evidence, and while living there he commits a crime himself."

Prisoners of War.

m London Tit-Bits. Already a large number of Germa prisoners have been taken by the allies In the Franco-German war of 1870 foot, for during that campaign the French prisoners reached the extraor dinary total of 21,508 officers and 702. 048 men. Of these nearly 250,000 were the Paris garrison and over 90,000 rep resented the French troops disarmed and interned in Switzerland. Prisoners of war are always an embarrassmen and a source of considerable worry and expense, though their numbers are fre-quently lessened by interchange with prisoners taken by the enemy.

WEATHER.

Pressure is abnormally high over the northern states east of the Rocky mountains with the highest readings over the Saint Lawrence valley, and it is relatively low in the south and the southwest. This pressure distribution has resulted in general rains in the middle Mississippi and Ohio valleys, the southern portion of the region of the great lakes, and in the Atlantic states from Pennsylvania southward to Georgin. It has caused northeast and east gales on the Atlantic coast from
